Re: Bill Spadea for Congress (NJ 12th District)

To Whom It May Concern: I am writing to you regarding the

I am registering a complaint against the above captioned candidate for violation of election law by omitting the "Paid for by ..." disclaimer on the following Bill Spadea for Congress literature and material:

- Fundraising appeal 'Century Data – Urgent Dated Communication' that was mailed in the winter of 2003.
- Bill Spadea for Congress mailer sent in July of 2004 and handed out at various community functions.
- Bill Spadea for Congress lawn signs that lacked the appropriate "Paid for" disclaimer on them.

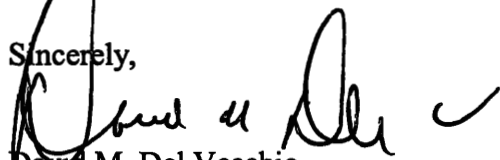

The Bill Spadea for Congress campaign has issued releases and newsletters, as well as a Father's Day fundraising appeal from Mrs. Spadea that have the appropriate disclaimer on them that the above examples do not.

As Chairman of the Hunterdon County Democratic Committee, the Mayor of the City of Lambertville and the Democratic nominee for Congress in 1996, I understand that following the letter and spirit of the law can be onerous, but they are of paramount importance to a working democracy.

I would appreciate an acknowledgement of the complaint and to be kept apprised of the resolution. Thank you.

Sincerely,

David M. Del Vecchio
Chairman
